CONDITIONS AND LIMITATIONS

- Offer: A total of 25 nights of free mooring (one night at each port) for members and users with their home port at the main port of Marina Empuriabrava. At the ports marked (*) during July and August the second night is free, the first will be charged.
- The free stay is limited to mooring. Any consumption, tax and services will be charged.
- It is necessary for the user to be a holder of a rental contract with Marina de Empuriabrava, in addition to being up-to-date on payments and have C.R. insurance.
- Reservations must be made within a maximum of 15 days and a minimum of 72 hours. The reservation includes authorization that their mooring may be occupied during their absence.
- Reservations must be made, compulsorily, at the home port, which will confirm the availability and provide a stamped print-out for the user. The user will sign that they accept these conditions and the specific conditions for the regulations of use and policy at the host port. It is compulsory to provide this print-out on arrival at the destination port in order to moor there for free.
- No reservation will be accepted that is not made from the home port.
- Any vessel that makes a reservation and does not appear at the destination port, without cancelling a minimum of 24 hours beforehand, will automatically lose the right to use the other free nights. In order to recover these free nights, it will be necessary to pay the mooring rate at the port of destination, which will be notified by the destination port to the home port.
- Vessels accepted: monohulled vessels on the seventh list with lengths of between 8 and 18m. For longer catamarans and greater lengths, consult the Marina Empuriabrava offices
- This offer is not valid for charter companies.
- This offer is subject to the availability and features of each port, which must be consulted beforehand.
- This offer cannot be accumulated with other offers of the same characteristics.
- The Port reserves the right to cancel this offer for any user without prior notice.
